

KILLED AT THE I. & C. CAR SHOPS

C. E. Shanklin, Car Inspector, Supposed to Have Been Fatally Shocked

Was at Work on Top of a Car and Had Forgotten to Open Switch.

C. E. Shanklin, or Ernest Shanklin, as he was known among the employes of the I. & C., was almost instantly killed Sunday while at work on top of one of the cars at the car barns. The supposition is that he was shocked by coming in contact with the trolley wire.

Mr. Shanklin was a nephew of Charles L. Henry, of Indianapolis, president and general manager of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, his mother, Mrs. W. V. Shanklin, deceased, being a sister to Mr. Henry, and was employed as inspector and car repairer. He and his wife came here during the winter of 1904-05. They resided in the Pearsey property, 232 West Second street. Prior to coming to this city, Mr. Shanklin was employed in the Indiana Union Traction company's shops at Anderson and in the I. & C. shops at Shelbyville.

In his capacity as inspector, Mr. Shanklin had absolute control of the switch in the car barns during the day. He was a man, who, seemingly, never grew excited nor lost his head.

He was always careful that none of the employes in the shops went on top of the cars without turning off the current from the trolley wire. He was a man of pleasant disposition and had no bad habits. He was very popular with his fellow workmen and was the last man whom they suspected would meet death in the manner that he did.

Sunday morning Shanklin went to work at 5 o'clock owing to the fact that he was needed at the barns to assist in getting two extra cars ready for service. He went to breakfast shortly after 6 o'clock and returned at 7.

The accident that resulted in his death happened shortly before 8 o'clock. Shanklin had taken car No. 305 out of the wash room on the south side of the car barns and had brought it into the center room over the south track. He then inspected the car and worked underneath it for a short time at repairing the brakes. While he was at work under the car Master Mechanic Skipton passed, and Shanklin asked him if it would be necessary to send out another car in order to accommodate the colored people coming to this city from Indianapolis. As far as is known, that is the last time that he spoke to anyone.

Shanklin then went on top of the car presumably to oil or repair the trolley. He had evidently been working upon it for, at the time he was found, the trolley pole was reversed and lowered toward the roof so that the wheel could be easily reached.

James Young, another car repairer, passing by, was attracted by a slight noise on top of the car. He glanced up and discovered the unfortunate man lying on the roof with one arm and one leg over the trolley pole. He shouted to Enos Neal, another workman, and ran to the switch which he opened and shut off the current. The switch is located to the south of the east door in the middle room. Young then ran to the office of the Master Mechanic in the southwest corner of the barn and told Mr. Skipton. Neal, however, was the first to reach Shanklin's side. Messrs. Skipton and Young followed. Shanklin was quickly stretched out on the roof of the car, a cushion was placed under his shoulders and strenuous efforts were made to revive him by working his arms and rubbing his body. Robert Lucas was sent to telephone for the company's physician, and in ten minutes Dr. J. C. Sexton arrived in his automobile. Shanklin, however, breathed his last just as the doctor arrived.

Coroner Coleman was then called and viewed the body, which was later removed to Wyatt's undertaking establishment, where it was prepared for burial.

At the time of the accident, Mrs. Ella Shanklin, wife of the deceased, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Smith, who but recently moved to Anderson from Indianapolis. She was told of the accident by Dale Shanklin, brother of the deceased, living at Anderson, who was notified by Master Mechanic Skipton. Charles L. Henry was notified of the accident by Electrical Engineer Nichol. Mrs. Shanklin arrived in this city at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, at which time the body was taken to the home.

Coroner Coleman, Dr. Sexton and Undertaker Wyatt were unable to find any marks on the body indicating the point of contact with the trolley wire.

Coroner Coleman held his inquest last evening, but has not yet filed his verdict. There was a small cut on the forehead, but this is supposed to have been received in the fall.

Mr. Shanklin was thirty-four years of age. He was about five feet ten inches in height and weighed 210 pounds. He was dark complexioned and wore a dark mustache. He was a member of Franklin Lodge I. O. O. F., of this city, having recently transferred his membership from the lodge at Anderson.

The trolley wire with which he is thought to have come in contact was charged with 550 volts of electricity. This, however, is not considered sufficient to kill as other employes at the barns have received the current and escaped death. Shanklin, however, is thought to have formed a circuit with the roof of the car.

At the time of the accident he was working in plain view of the switch and could have seen that it was closed.

His fellow workmen cannot see how he failed to open the switch, for he knew that it was closed, inasmuch as he closed it himself when he brought in the car.

The body of Mr. Shanklin will be taken to Anderson for burial. A short funeral service will be held at the late residence at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, conducted by Rev. V. W. Tevis, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church, and under the auspices of the Odd Fellows. The funeral party will go to Anderson on a special car, via Indianapolis. Mr. Shanklin was a member of the Red Line Relief Association and carried life insurance.

CHURCH NEWS

Owing to the Chautauqua, there were no services in any of the city churches last night.

Elder C. H. Casey, of Martin, Tenn., will preach this evening at 7:30, at the Morgan Street Baptist church.

The annual meeting of the Regular Baptist Association, which closed its three days' session at Yanketown Sunday, will be held next year in this city. The meetings will probably be held at the fair grounds.

Rev. E. B. Stewart, pastor of the Third United Presbyterian church, Chicago, is visiting his father, W. A. Stewart, preached an excellent sermon at the United Presbyterian church Sunday morning. A large audience was present.

Religious services are being conducted each evening at 7:30 o'clock in front of the court house. Evangelist Hopkins, wife and daughter, who is in charge of the services, are having large crowds, are making many friends and are doing much good. The good citizens of Rushville are helping these people very much. Mr. A. P. Wagoner, who deals in pianos and musical instruments, presented to Miss Maude Hopkins a $30 guitar. Surely God will bless Bro. Wagoner. It is more blessed to give than to receive.

The Junior Missionary Band, of Mays, gave an entertainment at the Mays school house last Wednesday evening, Aug. 8th. The superintendent, Mrs. Rabb, gave the children a short review of the work covered in the last few months. Many of the older people were put to shame by hearing the little ones answer so many Bible questions, which were surely puzzling to older minds. A good work is certainly being carried on among the children, and should have the hearty support of all patrons. After the review they gave a short program which consisted of recitations, dialogues and drills.

CROWDS AT CHAUTAUQUA

Sunday's Sessions Were Well Attended—Pleasing Programs.

Lectures by Dr. Sears and F. H.
Green and Good Concerts—
Saturday Night's Session

Both the Saturday night and Sunday sessions of the Chautauqua were largely attended, the tent being filled each time. The lectures by Dr. F. H. Green and Dr. H. W. Sears were greatly enjoyed.

The Saturday evening program was especially interesting. The musical prelude was given by Mr. and Mrs. McGibbenny, who proved very popular.

Dr. F. H. Green gave his lecture entitled "Life's Musical Scale." The lecture was full of real humor and sound sense and held the audience spell bound for one hour and a half. The letters in the scale were used as initials for life's guiding principles. The topics were discussed as follows: C, cleanliness; D, digestion; E, education; F, Force; G, Gladness; A, Aspiration; B, Benevolence; C, Christian Character.

Sunday was red letter day for the Chautauqua. The program began on "schoodole" time, and was enjoyed by over two thousand people. Rushville was at its best. Everyone was dressed in his best and those who did not have pleasant faces soon donned them in spite of themselves. Mr. and Mrs. McGibbenny opened with a splendid production of high grade music and exquisite readings.

Mr. Noah Beilharz recited "The Leper," and for an encore gave "The Boogie Man," to please the children. Dr. H. W. Sears, the "Taffy Man" proved to be so good that everywhere the expression was heard "the best I ever heard," "wasn't that fine?" Dr. Sears won a place in the hearts of the Rushville people akin to the place that Dr. Wickersham holds. In the evening the same performers entertained the largest crowd of the week. The subject of Dr. Sears' lecture was "Borrowed Trouble."

Dr. Hill and Prof. Headlee certainly deserve the commendation of the people of Rushville for the opportunity of hearing such delightful treats. Many people are saying: "Well, I have my money's worth already, and yet we have Small, Wickersham, Chicago Glee Club, Forbush, Schaeffer, Chicago Ladies and Dr. Atkinson, besides many others. It is not too late to get the worth of a season ticket."

Dr. Hill is a fine manager, beginning promptly on time and always giving more than promised.

Today the county institute began with Supt. L. D. Coffman, of Connersville, and Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, of Harrisburg, Pa., as instructors. This work will occupy the forenoons and from 1:15 to 2:15 in the afternoons. This assures a fine institute and the teachers are more than pleased with the Chautauqua in connection with the professional work.

The county teachers' institute which is to be held this week in connection with the Chautauqua, convened this morning at 9:30. Following the opening exercises the institute organization was perfected. Supt. L. D. Coffman and Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, the instructors, the former being superintendent of the Connersville city schools, and the latter, superintendent of the Pennsylvania State schools, gave some very helpful talks on various subjects pertaining to school work. Several musical numbers were rendered.

For the first day there was a good attendance at the institute. The institute sessions will be held in the forenoon of each day for five days.

This afternoon Bill Bone, the poet and humorist entertained another large crowd. The Chautauqua prelude was given by J. G. Elstun.

Tonight there will be another concert by the Rushville band, followed by Bill Bone and J. G. Elstun. The program for tomorrow is as follows:

8:45—Opening Exercises.
9:00—Work—Dr. Schaeffer.
9:40—Rest.
9:50—Music.
10:00—Work—Supt. Coffman.
10:40—Rest.
10:50—Music.
11:00—Work—Dr. Schaeffer.
Noon.
1:00—Music.
1:15—Work—Supt. Coffman.
2:30—Prelude—Bill Bone and Daugherty.
3:00—Concert—Chicago Glee Club.
7:30—Prelude—Chicago Glee Club and Bill Bone.
8:00—Lecture—"One Sided People," Dr. H. G. Hill.

Bill Bone, the poet, reads his own poems, and they run from grave to gay, and are original, unique and inspiring. Mr. Bone resembles James Whitcomb Riley and Eugene Fields. Mr. Bone will be with us for three days.

The Chicago Glee club will fill a three days' engagement and will appear both afternoon and evenings of August 14th 15th and 16th. This organization is without an equal among male quartets and adds to its vocal work a specialty in the form of a Trombone Quartet. In this novelty they are winning many high commendations. They are gentlemen, everyone. Their programs range from the classic to popular and humorous. Their reader, Mr. Dixon, is one of the best and has been with this organization in this capacity for several years.

Having maintained the same personnel for several seasons, the four voices blend in wonderful and pleasing harmony. They have cost the managers more money than any other organization, but we believe the best is none too good for the music loving people of this music loving city.

Dr. H. G. Hill, the platform superintendent is on the program at some of the biggest Chautauquas in the country.

To a large number of Rush county people he need no introduction, having won their affection on Educational Day. It is enough to say that in the lectures given, he will maintain the reputation he has already won. His humorous lecture on "One-Sided People" is especially popular, and "Unused Power" contains a message you cannot afford to miss.

CONDITION IS STILL SERIOUS

The Man Found in the Woods
Still Lies at the Jail.

Richard Howard, forty-five years old, of Indianapolis, who was found in a comatose condition in the Jones' woods, north of the Rushville brick works, and was removed to the county jail, still lies unable to give any account of himself. There is a supposition that he was prostrated by a paralytic stroke. He seems to be conscious of his surroundings, but is unable to utter a sound or move his body. His condition is now considered hopeless and his death is expected at any time. Augustus Miller of Indianapolis, came here after the man Sunday, but he was too weak to be taken home. Miller is expected here again this evening.

VALUABLE MARE IS FOUND DEAD

Ronda 2:29 1-4, Belonging to Graham and Hackleman
Dies in Pasture

The valuable brood mare, Ronda, 2:29½, by Haw Patch, belonging to Dr. F. G. Hackleman and Bruce Graham, was found dead in the pasture at 5 o'clock this morning at Mr. Graham's home. She was valued at $1000 and the cause of her death is unknown. She is the dam of five trotters by five different stallions.

CONFERENCE HAS CLOSED

Colored Folks Have Big Basket Meeting Sunday at Fairgrounds

Influence of Conference on the Community—Many Visitors at Meeting Sunday.

The M. E. Conference that met in our city, the past week, was a notable gathering. This is the Indiana District, and includes portions of Illinois and Kentucky. The presiding elder of the district is Rev. Dr. D. E. Skelton, of Indianapolis.

Such a gathering of men must, of necessity, leave behind it wholesome influences upon the community. There were among them men of means, owners of homes and farms, men of great culture, graduates of colleges and theological seminaries, men who had been slaves, but who now have attained to a high rank in intelligence and general usefulness, and men, too, who went forth in the flush of manhood, during the gigantic struggle for the maintenance of the integrity of our Union, and gave the best efforts of their lives in behalf of liberty and native land. We repeat that the influence of such men must be wholesome, for they are not only living examples of success to their own people, but examples to the country in general, of the negro's capacity for good.

The assembly also gave evidence of the negro's talent. Among the singers, Mrs. Irene Spaulding Case, of Bloomington, Ind., stands forth as one possessed of rarest gifts. She is a lady of fine presence, possessed of a rich, melodious voice and has it under excellent control. Her singing was one of the features of the conference. Miss Stella Wickliff, of Shelbyville, gave a splendid recitation from the writings of Paul Lawrence Dunbar, and revealed the fact that she has unusual talent along that line. The address of Mrs. Carrie Ross, president of the Home Missionary Society, was exceptionally brilliant, really eloquent. She resides at Indianapolis. Miss Myrtle Ferguson, of this city, deserves mention, as her address was deservedly well received.

Among the gentlemen who spoke, Revs. E. A. White, of Ohio, Dickerson and Redmond, of Chicago, and Prof. Williams, of our city should be named. These speakers were great entertainers. Prof. Williams' address being exceptionally strong as a specimen of brilliant oratory.

The Home Missionary Society, a conference auxiliary, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Pres., Mrs. Carrie Ross, Indianapolis; 1st vice pres., Mrs. J. T. V. Hill, Indianapolis; 2d vice pres., Mrs. Annie Adams, Princeton; 3d vice pres., Mrs. D. E. Skelton, Indianapolis; 4th vice pres., Mrs. Parish Fisher, Madison; cor. sec., Mrs. Della Griffin, Green castle; rec. sec., Mrs. Rhetta Curry, Greenfield; sec. lit., Miss Saphronia Shaw, Evansville; sec. of supplies, Mrs. J. S. Bailey, Indianapolis; sec. of mite box, Mrs. Sallie A. Ramsey, Shelbyville; treas., Mrs. Mary Winfrey, Evansville.

During the elections in the main body of the conference, Mrs. Monin Ramey, of our city, was elected District Sunday school superintendent, and Prof. Williams, district treasurer of Epworth League.

Rev. T. T. Carpenter, whose untiring energy made the matter of entertainment of delegates a success, was presented, on last Saturday night at conference, two volumes as a testimonial of esteem. They were Dr. M. C. Mason's volumes of sermons, and "The Art of Soul Winning." Rev. Carpenter has raised his church from ninth to second place of all the churches of the district, in the matter of raising the funds assessed by the general conference. This has made him prominent as one of the live workers of the district.

The conference, next year, will be held at Princeton, Ind.

THE EX-SLAVE MEETING

The ex-slave meeting at the fair ground, yesterday, was a success. Two cars filled with people came from Indianapolis, a car load from Connersville, and a large number of our resident citizens also attended.

In the afternoon there were addresses by Hon. James E. Watson, Dr. D. E. Skelton, and Rev. J. M. Morton, of Indianapolis. All the addresses were good and appropriate to the occasion. Mr. Watson's address was very eloquent, lofty in sentiment and most effective in its appeal. It was closely followed by the large crowd, and the good, wholesome advice and encouragement given the colored people were all that could be desired.

The eminent success of this enterprise is due entirely to Rev. Carpenter, who began a year ago to hold such commemorative services. The movement is good one, for it gives splendid opportunity to put before the colored people most encouraging and helpful discourses as to their duties under citizenship.

DEATH OF G. W. MANLOVE

Prominent Farmer of Northwestern Part of Washington Township, Rush County

His death was due to senility complicated with kidney affections. He leaves a wife and daughter, Mrs. Dan Jackson.

The funeral was held today from the residence with services and burial at Bentonville.

Mr. Manlove was a prominent citizen of this county and a wealthy farmer. He has lived upon the farm owned at his death for a great number of years.

Her Husband Abandoned Her.

Alleging that her husband abandoned her on March 1st, 1901, without cause, and that he failed to provide for her and her children, was cruel to her and would not return when his little girl died, Mrs. Cora Turner filed suit in the circuit court for divorce and $500 alimony from Elias R. Turner. She also asks that he be required to pay $3 per week toward her support. The Turners were married August 24, 1896. They have one son, Allen, age 8.

GETS CHAIR IN COLLEGE

A. F. Stewart, to Take Charge of Latin Dept., Monmouth College

Was Also Offered Chair in Wilmington College, Wilmington, Ohio.

Albert F. Stewart, who for several years, was professor of mathematics in the local high school, left today for Monmouth, Ill., where he has accepted a chair in Monmouth College. Prof. Stewart will take charge of the Latin department. His purpose in going to Monmouth today was to look for rental property. He expects to move to Monmouth as soon as he can get a house.

Some time ago the offer of a professorship at Monmouth came to Prof. Stewart unsolicited, and simultaneously came an offer of a professorship in the Wilmington College, Wilmington, O. The latter was also unsolicited. Prof. Stewart chose to accept the former, after a visit from the president of the college.

Prof. Stewart is widely known in Rush county. He is a son of W. A. Stewart, of West Seventh street, and taught in the local high school for a number of years. He was one of the most popular and efficient teachers that the high school ever had. He is a splendid Latin student and is in every way capable to hold the position that he has accepted.

Monmouth College is a United Presbyterian College and is one of the best educational institutions in the Central West. Prof. Stewart will have the best wishes of his host of friends in Rush county in his new field. He and his estimable wife regret to leave Rushville, for their associations here have been of the most pleasant, but as Prof. Stewart's new position is in the line of a promotion, it is but a natural consequence to accept it.

SOCIETY NEWS

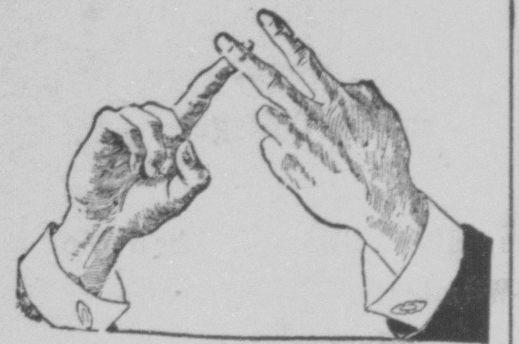

The social function given on Friday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Guffin and family, in honor of their guests, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. MacNeill and family, of Kokomo, was one of the most enjoyable and delightful of the season. More than seventy-five of the splendid people of the Little Flat-rock neighborhood assembled on the spacious lawn. Games of croquet and quoits were engaged in and fun and frolic ran high. At five o'clock an elegant and sumptuous repast was served on the lawn under the magnificent old trees. The way everybody stowed away that splendid supper remained your scribe of the story told by Congressman Watson. He was showing an old gentleman and his wife through a great ship. The old man fell through an open scuttle hole. Looking up at his wife who was anxiously gazing down through the opening he said, "I'll be gol darned, Mandy, if the old thing ain't all hollow inside. From the way the chicken and other good things disappeared at all those tables were hollow inside. All were glad to spend such a delightful afternoon with Rev. MacNeill and his good family, and expressed their gratitude to Mr. and Mrs. Guffin for the privilege. The following persons were among the guests: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Frazee, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Medd, Mr. and Mrs. Cain Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Orlan Myers, Mr. and Mrs. George Guffin, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. MUCH USEFUL INFORMATION

Is Crowded Into the Republican Political Handbook.

Indianapolis, Ind., August 13.—The Indiana Republican political handbook for 1906 is ready for distribution. The book contains much useful information for political workers and is the most ambitious publication that the Republican state committee has yet prepared. Most of the work of compilation was done by Secretary Carl W. Riddick. Mr. Riddick, who is a member of the Republican Editorial association, and is also a practical printer, has used his knowledge of type to good advantage and the handbook presents a very neat appearance. The book is divided into five sections. The first gives the names of the members and officers of the state and county committees, and the officers of a number of the other Republican organizations of the state. The second part gives information concerning national political affairs, and includes the vote for congressmen and tells of the work of the Indiana congressmen at Washington. The third part is devoted to Indiana affairs, gives the names of state officers, the state candidates, the platform, the vote by counties for presidential elector and governor, and other useful facts. The fourth part includes the names of the members of the general assembly, the hold-over senators, and other information about the coming election of members of the assembly. The last section contains general political information, including an abstract of the state election laws and much general information concerning the state institutions.

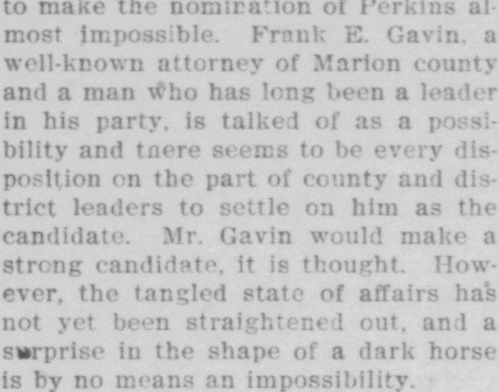

BY THE THOUSANDS

The Seventh district Democrats, Marion county, are still in something of a quandary as to whom they shall nominate for congressman against Jesse Overstreet, Republican, when their convention meets Tuesday. The district is so strongly Republican that the hope of winning the fight is not very good, and for that reason it is hard to find candidates who are anxious for the place. The first man prominently suggested for the nomination was Will V. Rooker, an attorney, who is well known in the district and has long been a factor in Democratic politics. Factional differences are said to have been responsible for his withdrawal. Edgar A. Perkins was the next man suggested for the place. Mr. Perkins had things all his own way for a while, the leaders having decided that he was the man for the position. Mr. Perkins is president of the Indiana Federation of Labor, and since there is talk of organized labor making a fight on Congressman Overstreet, he was considered a very good man for the place. However, members of the rank and file became suspicious that there was a deal in the nomination, and while the rumor has not been verified, it has been sufficient to make the nomination of Perkins almost impossible. Frank E. Gavin, a well-known attorney of Marion county and a man who has long been a leader in his party, is talked of as a possibility and there seems to be every disposition on the part of county and district leaders to settle on him as the candidate. Mr. Gavin would make a strong candidate, it is thought. However, the tangled state of affairs has not yet been straightened out, and a surprise in the shape of a dark horse is by no means an impossibility.

The nomination of the eight representatives and the senator to which Marion county is entitled in the general assembly is creating a good deal of interest, and the convention of the Democrats who will nominate on Tuesday is causing more talk than the selection of the congressional candidate. There is a feeling that the Democrats have a fighting chance to win in the legislative fight. It is said that the nominations will be divided in such a way as to restore harmony in the party in the county. A certain number of attorneys, of laboring men, of business men and of political workers are to be nominated. The program on which the canvass will be made will be one of reform, outperforming the cherished plans of the Republican leaders. The lines of reform will be about the same, however. Primary election laws, public depository laws, and laws for the inspection and regulation of insurance companies and state banks will be advocated. However, no two-cent fare law has been suggested so far.

Veterans Are Pouring Into Minneapolis For the Encampment.

Minneapolis, Aug. 13.—Thousands of veterans of the civil war are gathering at Minneapolis to attend the fortieth annual national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. The encampment will extend through the entire week and comprises an elaborate program of social functions in addition to the many business affairs which will receive attention. A WAR ON DOGS

North Vernon Will Take No Chances on Spread of Rabies.

DEATH TO SUSPECTS

Mad Dog Scare in That City Is Followed by an Official Order of Extermination.

Dog That Bit a Boy Has Been Officially Declared to Have Had Hydrophobia.

North Vernon, Ind., Aug. 13.—If the measures adopted by the local authorities are continued North Vernon will soon be a dogless city. Following the official report received from Indianapolis to the effect that a dog which had bitten Amos Thompson, jr., had been suffering from hydrophobia, according to the analysis conducted by the state board of health, the mayor called the executive committee of the city council together. In a brief meeting it was decided to order killed at once all dogs known to have been bitten by the mad dog; also to order all dogs in the city muzzled for sixty days. If these orders are not carried out the canines will be shot down by the city police. The mayor's proclamation was printed on handbills which were hurriedly distributed over the city. The crack of many rifles followed by canine yelps, was later heard. The Thompson boy is apparently not ill, but is being closely watched.

Not only might we as well keep our bodies cool, but also our heads cool when we go to buy things to wear. Is it not well during these "faking" days of commerce to deal during the reduction time with the store that tries to do the square thing the year round? Remember, if you get bit on a Suit or other things to wear that you must stay bit until you wear out the clothes you got—or give them away. Either is expensive. Is it not even better to give away snide clothes than to wear them? Good clothes makes that successful feeling. Legitimate stores, though, at this time of the year make legitimate reductions in prices of summer-tuff. We haven't a great many light weights in clothes and furnishings for your body left so we can yearly let these slide cheaply.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stamm, Thursday, August 8th, a big bouncing boy.

Wilson McConnell, while sitting in the yard, fell over unconscious for several hours last Friday afternoon. He did not become conscious until 10 o'clock in the evening, but is now much better.

Mrs. Jane Wright is convalescing slowly.

T. A. Reed, Mrs. Mary Reed and Walter Combs are at Indianapolis today. Mrs. T. A. Reed and Walter Combs are attending State camp meeting of the P. O. S. of A. which convenes there today.

Quite a number are attending the teachers' institute and Chautauqua from here.

The conundrum that appeared in last week's paper will be answered as follows. "Because it is flattened at the poles." You remember that the candidates that were on the beginning and end of the ticket did not receive as many votes as those in the center.

There were not many services at either of the churches for some reason or other. We don't know why. We know there was a ball game and that was all that was going on. Of course there were other reasons. Rev. Cook was not at home and there was an all-day basket meeting at Columbia, and the M. E. folks were putting a carpet down, but they could have gotten the use of the U. P. church by asking for it as it didn't interfere with any of their services.

Many of the Democrats from this vicinity attended the convention at Rushville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chew and daughter Ruth are attending Seventh Day Adventist camp meeting.

Miss Gladys Anderson, of Connersville is visiting Miss Lavonne Foster for a few days.

It seems to us that any one who has been sent here ought to be prompt to receive it off the train, when it arrives instead of letting it lay around for several hours.

Mrs. Margaret Vandivier's woods seem to be an excellent place for picnics, either day or night.

John Reed and John Beaver were in Lawrence county, looking up their interests in the fruit business. They report a more favorable prospect in Fayette and Rush counties.

Miss Minnie Shelton has returned from a visit to Greensburg.

There was no ball game last Sunday, because Falmouth did not show up.

Mr. Frank Reed accompanied by his lady friend from Milroy, was entertained by his parents last Sunday.

Mr. George Hulse can show fields on his farm that don't have any noxious weeds at all. If anyone doubts the statement let them come and see and they will be convinced his statement is true. You will find the farm just outside the "incorporation" line. The residence is within the limits of the town. When the survey was being made he asked to be put in the incorporation. He is an up-to-date farmer as well as progressive in every line.

You can see the poison pills clear out the kidneys and bladder. A single dose at bed time will show you more poison upon rising the next morning than can be expelled from the system in any other way. Mr. Winters will probably buy a tract if well pleased. Mr. Hester has been circulating his reports about that place and already a number of our farmers have caught the "fever." Lavane Spohn has increased his supply of water by putting down a new water well.

In Loving Memory to Mrs. Beckner

Eveline Mers was born in Kentucky, April 14, 1828, and departed this life August 5th, 1906, aged 78 years, 3 months and 21 days. She was united in marriage to Alfred Beckner on March 12th, 1834. They moved to Rush county in 1863, and to them were born twelve children, three sons and nine daughters, John C., and Lawrence, of Missouri; Andrew D., Mrs. Martha Fleener, near Arlington; Mrs. Grace Junken, and Mrs. Alpha Roberts, of Hancock county. She also leaves two sisters, Polly Beckner, of Morristown, and Mrs. Nanewie Mitchel, of Rush county. The father with six children have gone before. Her husband died two years ago and since that time she has been a constant sufferer, which she bore with great patience. [She was never heard to murmur or complain. She joined the Christian church at Arlington in her young days, under the pastorate of Rev. Delamie Franklin and was a good Christian neighbor and devoted mother. Since the death of their father, the children have cared for their mother.

She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Grace Junken, near Greenfield. She longed for the voice to say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thy work is finished; thy suffering is over."

After her death they removed her to the home of Mrs. Martha Fleener, where she longed to be when death came.

A SCENE IN CHURCH

Determined Woman Keeps Up Her Effort to See the President.

FORCIBLY REPULSED

When Miss Esac Would Not Give Up Her Pew Behind President's Pew She Was Removed by Force.

For This Act She Applied For a Warrant For Usher's Arrest But Was Refused.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Miss Asi L. Esac, who is summing in Oyster Bay for the purpose of interviewing the president or Mrs. Roosevelt on what she declares is "a matter of life and death," created a scene during the services in Christ's Episcopal church Sunday. Miss Esac, or Miss Case, as her name is supposed to be, has attended every church service the president has since his arrival here in July. She has climbed Sagamore Hill on foot several times, only to be turned away by the secret service men. She presented herself early at the church yesterday and took a seat directly behind the pew usually occupied by the Roosevelt family. When Usher James Duffy requested her to relinquish this seat she refused. Duffy forcibly removed her to the rear of the church, and Miss Esac says he tore her gown in so doing. For this act she later applied for a warrant for Duffy but was refused.

In the rear of the church Miss Esac refused to sit down. A secret service agent stood beside her and during the services she made no fewer than a dozen attempts to get past him. As the president was leaving the church three secret service men surrounded Miss Esac, but she shouted: "Mr. President, Mr. President, President Roosevelt, won't you speak to me a moment?"

The president turned his head as he passed, but did not pause. Miss Esac says her watch chain was broken in this scrimmage with the secret service men and her watch fell to the floor.

The president was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and Quentin and Representative and Mrs. Longworth. Miss Esac has stated to acquaintances she has made while here that she was to have been married in the White House at the time Miss Alice became Mrs. Longworth; that she was to have married a high government official, and that it was this wrong she seeks to redress. When the president's carriage had departed Miss Esac was allowed to go. It was then she sought a warrant for Duffy. She says she will stay in Oyster Bay until she accomplishes her purpose.

Representative and Mrs. Longworth departed for Washington and Cincinnati today.

Even to this good day cough and cold medicines invariably bind the bowels. This is wrong. Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup with Honey and Tar acts on the bowels—drives out the cold—clears the head, relieves all coughs, cleanses and strengthens the mucous membrane of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes. Sold by Lytle's Drug Store.

Bargains in Canada Land.

Now is the time to go see that Canada country. The crops standing on the ground will convince you that it is the greatest small grain country in the world, and when you see that beautiful prairie, free from brush, stone, and everything of the kind, and wheat that will go 40 bushels to the acre, and oats 100 bushels, you will do as others, buy all the land you possibly can. It's a chance that will not come to you again, and it will be your fault if you do not secure some of that good land, that produces good crops every year, and thus make a fortune. I will take you to the best part of Canada and sell you land on easy payments and for one fifth of its true value. Excursions August 14th and 28th. THE JOY OF A GOOD CIGAR.

Thos W. Lytle Tells How Smokers can be Sure to get Their Money's Worth.

"How can one be sure of getting his money's worth in buying a cigar?" asked a Republican reporter of Thos. W. Lytle of Lytle's Drug Store. "I'll tell you how to be sure. Just buy a Wadsworth Bros' Chico. This cigar is always the same—a good, honest, satisfying smoke. It is made with a long Havana filler, so that it always burns with a firm solid ash, the best sign of a good cigar."

"The Chico burns with a fragrance like that of the Carolina perfecto, a 25c cigar, but it costs only 5c. My best customers are smoking the Chico, and when they stop in front of the cigar case, they say, 'give us some more of those good cigars.'" "We pass out the Wadsworth Bros' Chico, and they go away happy."

Try a Chico yourself, and see how good it is.

Why Have a Dead Piano?

What Will You Take for Your Silent Piano in Exchange for a New One That You Can Play?

Your Piano may have cost you $500. If you play yourself or have someone else who plays it well, it is doubtless worth all it costs you. If it stands idle and is never used, it would be an expensive piece of bric-a-brac, and an exceedingly poor investment at $200. The fact that a piano is in your house is an evidence that you enjoy music and would like to have it.

We will take your dead Piano and put a living one in its place, allowing you all that your present piano is worth in part payment for AN AUTOPIANO.

The Autopiano

Is an excellent Piano that can be played in the usual way by any one who understands piano playing. The picture shows the secret panel open for the music roll, and the pedals, which makes it a self-playing piano for the use of anyone, even if without knowledge of a single note or key. The repertoire of the AUTOPIANO is unlimited, and in our music catalogue you will find everything from the classics to the popular ragtime songs of the day.
